

Culter Theatre Club Presents...

Charlie & The Chocolate Factory with a musical treat

GOLDEN TICKET

WONKA

a play by Richard George Directed by Pauline De Koning

A word from the Director on Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

What is it that makes this tale so unforgettable? Could it be the chocolate? Or the Oompa Loompas? I reckon it is the blend of fun and sincerity. This story celebrates family, honesty and a real sense of belonging.

And that is what Culter Theatre Club is about too. It is a club run by the community for the community. Once again, the cast have pulled together to create a wonderful show. A show that isn't just about the people on the stage performing for you tonight but that is also a celebration of the hard work that goes on behind the scenes. So I'd like to ask for your appreciation for those unsung heroes: the seamstresses, set designer and builders, props, continuity, stage management, sound and lights, front of house and all the parents who have done their little bit... all those you don't see tonight but without whom this production would not have been possible. I'd like to thank especially Bill de Koning, Lesley Stein and Valerie Stam and Kris Lynch, who kept the dream alive and helped me make it happen.

Sweeties are a child's best friend

The dentists cannot help themselves
They delight in frightful drillings
But we prefer a bag of sweets and never mind the fillings

A brace on the teeth maybe quite a correction
But sweeties are a child's best friend
A brace may be grand but it won't do for dating with some handsome lad
Just helps you get a smile instead Teeth fall out as we stand proud but we all lose our teeth in the end oh all sorts and pear drops oh no we will not stop
Sweeties are a child's best friend

Sherbet Dabs, polo mints, mars bars, Thornston's Talk to me Mr Kipling - tell us all about it.

There may come a time when a child needs a diet
But sweeties are a child's best friend
There may come a time and then there'll be a riot when They try to stop Irn Bru and soda pop Smarties make us rather high
But we soon will be all on the mend Although we be rounded, fat blobs and frowned at Sweeties are a child's best friend

I've heard of campaigns that are promoting veggies
But those things surely taste real bland
And I think that health food like potato wedgies
Are better for those sandal-wearing herbivores
Time rolls on and teeth are gone
And you can't straighten up when you bend
Just suck hard on boiled sweets
You do not need your teeth
Sweeties, sweeties
I don't want sweet peas
Sweeties... are a girl's best friend
