Culter Theatre Club Presents

Honk!

A musical of Hans Christian Andersen's 'The Ugly Duckling'

Honk! Was awarded the Laurence Olivier Award in 2000 for Best Musical.

The rest of the farmyard, tease him, pushing him into the arms of the Tom Cat, who invites Ugly into the "kitty Kat snack shack" for lunch. Ugly then escapes from there, and by nightfall he becomes lost. His concerned parents, send out a search party to look for Ugly. He then finds himself, on open marshland, where he is taken care of by Greylag, a military goose. The Tom Cat appears again, and tries to get hold of Ugly! Back in the farmyard, Ida has left Drake in charge of the nest while she goes out to find her missing son.

Ugly stumbles across a cottage, which is home to Lowbutt, a hen and her friend Queenie, a lap cat. Once again the Tom Cat appears, but is distracted by the charm of Queenie, Ugly then is able to escape. With winter creeping closer, the search becomes more frantic, Ugly's chances look slim, until he meets a beautiful swan named Penny. He declines her invitation to join the swan family. Ugly continues his journey to find his mother. He is befriended by a Bullfrog. He is rescued from a hunter's net by the Tom Cat...but will Ugly ever see the Spring?

Acknowledgements

Lynne would like to thank first of all the cast for your hard work and putting up with me. Well done, you have all been great. Jemma, for going above and beyond the call of duty as producer and keeping me on track- I couldn't have done it without you. Rachel and everyone involved in set design, building, painting and stage crew. Fergus for setting the lights, Yvonne and Danielle for lighting, and Bill for sound. Debennis and Kevin for helping with the props. Stuart Mearnes, thanks for all the support and advice you've given me. Ruth, thank you so much for everything. The band, thanks for agreeing to play. Mum, for helping at rehearsals. The C.T.C committee, Hall staff, JAMYT, Lights Camera, Action! and Peterculter Parish Church. Finally to all my friends at student show '05, for all your support, guidance and banter. To all who have unwittingly helped me, I can only be grateful and thank you for being yourselves.

Jemma would like to thank the cast, for working so hard and making this an enjoyable show. You're all stars. Most importantly, my partner in crime, Lynne for helping me with everything needing done and for the laughs needed along the way. You've done an amazing job. Ruth for her amazing playing and energy during each rehearsal- much appreciated. Patrick, for helping me so much, with everything, I really appreciate it. Rachel, Jim, Aileen, Alana for helping with building the set, Painting the set and thanks to the stage crew. Thanks to the lighting and sound team, done a fantastic job. Thanks to Keith for printing the posters and programmes. Thanks to the band, for playing during the show. Thanks to all my friends, who have helped me along the way, couldn't ask for better friends, so cheers!
