DIRECTOR'S INTRODUCTION

Dear Panto Lovers

This year is a hundred years since J.M Barrie's Peter Pan was first put on stage as a play. It is also thirteen years ago that Culter Theatre Club put on their second pantomime ~ Peter Pantomania. So, since thirteen must be a lucky number in Neverland, this year's panto is a double celebration.

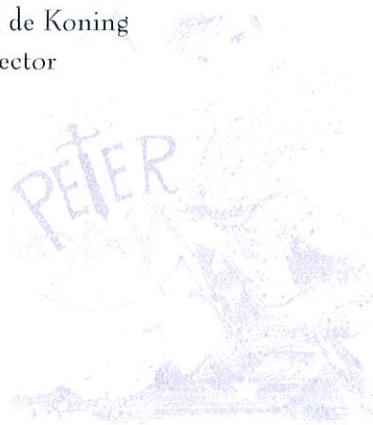

Things have moved on since then. The Johns, Michaels and Wendys have become Mr. and Mrs. Darlings and many faces have come and gone and have delighted Culter with their talent and contributions.

Peter Pan however stays forever young. And so does our cast. Although we can't give you Johnny Depp, we are delighted to introduce you to an amalgamation of young and old talent that are amongst the best in Scotland. And that's not all, because the real talent you won't see tonight are the people behind the scenes who put this panto together. I had the pleasure to work with an incredibly motivated and dedicated team, for most of whom, it was their first shot at production. I cannot thank them enough for their support in putting this show together and they deserve to be as proud as I am for what they have achieved!

So I'd like you all to put your seats in an upright position, switch off your mobile phones, fasten your seatbelts and join us in our flight to Neverland!!!
